OPPOSES MEXICO POLICY

Senator Fall Wants to Know of Assurances as to Carranza's Good Faith.

Senator Fall of New Mexico today criticised the administration for the course it pursued in recognition of the Carranza government in Mexico In a speech to the Senate he urged the adoption of his resolution calling upon President Wilson to submit to Congress Carranza's recognition, and "if not incompatible with the public interest" to submit all letters, messages and reports on Mexican affairs.

Senator Fall's resolution asks what the President has received that the Carranza government wisher or will be able to guarantee protection to foreigners or will be able to bring to an end the dissension within that country.

ON A SOCIOLOGICAL TOUR.

Police Theory Explaining Disappearance of William P. Terrell.

William Prescott Terrell, twentythree years old, whose sudden and mysterious disappearance from his father's real estate office, 1413 H street northwest, was reported to the police, it is stated, was a student of sociology, and Detective Charles A. Evans, who is in charge of the police search for him trinks he is wandering about the country getting material for a book he is writing on that subject.

Last night Mrs. Leo J. Long, 4307
New Hampshire avenue, told the detectives that a young man answering the description of the missing law student printed in The Star called at her house Tuesday morning and seked her house Tuesday morning and asked for food. He carried a law book, she stated, and his neat appearance at-tracted her attention. Parents of the young man think he is wandering about the country, as suggested by Detective Evans, and fear he may suffer from exposure. The police have learned nothing to suggest the young man's whereabouts since Tuesday afternoon.
